SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

It is hard to realize that we have been in Truckee a year, but with this issue the Sierra Sun is observing its first anniversary under the present management. The past year has been a pleasant one for us. We have enjoyed Truckee more than we had anticipated and have made many friends. If we have made enemies, it has not been from choice and we sincerely believe that they are few in number, if any. We have been happy to watch the progress made by the Truckee-Tahoe region during the past year. If we have been instrumental in any way in that progress, we are proud. It has been, and still is our objective to promote the welfare of this great recreational area. We want to do everything possible to make it even greater as a resort region and to that end dedicate next year's activities of your paper. And to each one of you we want to say thanks for your support, without such we could accomplish nothing.

We heard, indirectly, that the peace officers association of Nevada and Sierra counties held a meeting in Truckee last week. Officers from other communities brought representatves of the press in this area with them to report the activities, but here thus far they haven't even bothered to make a report of it. Probably not much doing, or we would have heard.

Another life was snuffed out on our highways this week. A youth, in the bud of manhood was instantly killed when his car overturned on a Lake Tahoe road. It was another of those tragedies which might have been avoided. The dead boy had every reason to want to live, but no doubt, youthlike, he was careless and dozed at the wheel for an instant. With these grim reminders always before us, we can not help but wonder why more caution is not practiced. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family of the most recent victim of the grim reaper who stalks the highways night and day, relentlessly and unsparingly.

The safety campaign started by the local Lions club is one of the most important issues of the year. If only one serious accident is avoided by the campaign, it will more than compensate the club for its activity. Too many fatalities have occured and the Lions are taking upon themselves to attempt to eliminate some at least.

BONDED DEBT FOR NEVADA COUNTY IS FIXED AT $485,028

Bonded debt outstanding of the governmental units in Nevada county totalled $485,028, or $28.91 per capita as of June 30, 1936, according to findings of California Taxpayers' association.

Total bonded debt in the county was made up of $305,750 for the school districts, $87,478 for special districts, and $91,800 for municipalities within the county, the association found.

In only one California county, Mono, no local bonded indebtness was shown at June 30, 1936, the study brought out, while the per capita debt in Trinity county was but 22 cents and that in Amador county but 29 cents. Other counties in which the local bonded indebtness averaged less than $20 per capita were Sierra, $1.66; Plumas, $3. 7; Tuolumne, $11. 20; Alpine, 11.40; Sacramento, $11.45; Siskiyou, $12.41; Calaveras, $18.44; Kern, $18.53; and San Benito, $18.87.

SPARKS SET FIRES IN FLORISTON AREA; CULVERT DESTROYED

Ten fires believed by foresters to have been caused by sparks from the brake sof a train, were controlled near Floriston Tuesday by the railroad's fire train and foresters. One culvert on the east bound track was destroyed and traffic there was delayed for a time.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN INAUGURATED HERE BY LIONS GROUP

A safety campaign, designed to eliminate at least some of the traffic accidents which occur in this locality has been inaugurated by the Truckee Lions Club. Installation of warning signs, apprehension of reckless drivers and other measures will be taken by the committee appointed by President C. Edmunds.

Discussion of the problems featured last night's meeting of the club.

A committee was appointed to arrange visitations to neighboring clubs during the coming month.

POSSIBILITY OF SETTLEMENT AT BOCA DAM SEEN

Mediation Committees Named To Discuss Terms On Project

DEPUTIES RELEASED

Rumors Rife As Arguments Over Terms Continued At Boca Dam

Possibilities of an early settlement of the dispute which has retarded the construction of the Boca Dam, a $1,000,000 reclamation project, eight miles east of here, was seen in the action taken yesterday when all deputy sheriffs were removed from the project, after being held there to maintain order.

That negotiations are going forward was reported from Reno today.

A Washoe county commissioner and two Reno businessmen were appointed members of a committee to meet with federal conciliators in an effort to work out a peaceful settement. Commissioner James Peckham, J. E. Horgan and Lester Hilp, are members of the committee.

The CIO group at Boca named G. J. Adams, H. F. Patton, M. Wiburn, H. J. Rowe, Robert Gwynn and W. W. Holt as members of the mediation committee.

George W. Condon, head of the construction company contractors for the huge job, was expected to arrive on the scene later today to enter into the negotiations.

Rumors continued to persist that no settlement was possible at the present time, although actions both at the dam and in Reno indicated otherwise.

Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley, one of the full-time deputies on the damsite was released with other deputies wednesday.

Some reports were that the men would be back to work Monday, although this rumor was unconfirmed.

Although the rumor was neither confirmed nor denied, it was believed that it is planned to hold a National Relations Board election to determine whether the workers wish representation of the CIO or A. F. of L.

More Than $500 Collected Here For July Fines

Automobile owners bound on violating traffic rules will think twice before attempting such infractions in Truckee if the fines collected during July by Judge C. E. Smith are an indication of their future behavior on the local highways.

The tidy sum of $547.50 in fines was realized by the local magistrate for last month. Ten dollars came from a disregard of the fish and game laws while the remaining amount can be chalked up to traffic transgressors.

The body with the skull fractured, was found ten minutes later after the accident by a fellow musician at the Log Cabin.

Gillette was well known throughout this area, where he was considered an accomplished musician and fine type of young man. The day preceeding the fatal accident, Gillette visited with his mother and friends in Truckee, returning to his work Tuesday evening.

Body Of Man Is Found On Track Near Eder Wall

Pockets Turned Indicate Man May Have Been Robbed

(Bulletin)

Identifocation of the body of the man found on the Southern Pacific tracks at Eder all last week has been established by Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley and Deputy Coroner Benjamin Tonini. Fingerprints sent to the state division of criminal identification revealed that the vctim was James Charles Gavis, 31, alias Paul Charles Lokleir, a seaman.

With the pockets of his clothing all turned inside out and his body badly mangled, the body of an unidentified man about 40 years of age was found Friday night by the engineer on the Southern Pacific's Overland Limited near Eder Wall, eight miles west of here.

The fact that the pockets were turned inside out indicated that the robbery have had been committed either after or before the man was crushed by a train. It is possible, officers said, that he may have been thrown from a freight train.

There was no means of identifying the body. Both feet were cut off and the skull was badly fractured. The victim was still alive when found by the trainmen, but died soon after reaching Norden, the first station west of the tragedy.

The clothing and general aspects of the victim indicated that he was an itinerant. Deputy Coroner Benjamin Tonini conducted the Investigation.

Boat Races Will Be Held Sunday At Chamber's

Thrilling Contests Forecast As Champions Vie In Races

TAHOE CITY, Aug. 5.— According to W. B. Jordan, assistant secretary of the Tahoe Power Boat Club one of the most exciting events ever scheduled on the lake will take place next Sunday at Chambers' Lodge pier when the second series of boat races are to be held, starting at 10 o'clock a. m.

Outstanding on the coming program will be the special feature race arranged between members of the local club, who pitted their fast racers against each other earlier in the season at the Tavern. At that time a question of speed arose among them which will be definitely settled on Sunday.

T. E. Anderson believes his Viking with its 200 H. P. motor can outdistance his rivals and on the strength of that belief is donating a gold cup for the winner of this special event. He will race Charles Ehrman's Jacqueline which is equipped with a 200 H. P. Dodge motor and E. L. Oliver's Hey There III, a 200 H. P. Garwood to be driven by William Oliver. Should he win the event the cup will go to his nearest rival. Because of difficulties arising from the first race of the season when Anderson was twice called back to the starting line for passing the flag ahead of his competitors, next Sunday the races will be run from a standing start at the sound of the gun.

Special events over two and three mile courses will be entered by 40 boats including craft from 100 to 630 H. P. displacement. Mr. Chambers who is donating all the trophies for the races, except the special events, will also serve as starter.

Other boats to be seen in action will include Stanley Dollar's Mercury, 600 H. P. job; Herbert Fleischacker's May-Be-Not, Henry Kaiser's Hornet II, a 450 Hydroplane and the Jr. 111, 90 H. P. Gar; Brooks Walker's Psyche, 450 H. P. hydroplane; Stanley Dollar's Uncle Sam; Randolph C. Walker's Ranjac II a 275 H. P. Gar; Gustav Knecht's Margus, III; Charles Townsend's Kanigo, Norman Biltz' Crystal Girl, Frank Buck's Brownie, Lawrence Kelly's Lawdor and J. Carrol Skinner's Florence M., driven by Mrs. Skinner.

CHARGE REDUCED AS MAN ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY

Chaney To Serve 90 Days In County Jail For Theft

DROP FELONY COUNT

Ex-Convict Agrees To Plead Guilty To Lesser Charges

Felony charges against Thomas Chaney, 45, arrested last week after he allegedly stole an automobile from Miss Sue Bradley and $80 in cash and checks from Claire Goode of the Standard Auto Service, were dropped at the request of Assistant District Attorney John LaRue at the preliminary hearing last Friday.

A new complaint charging petty theft was drawn up and to this charge the defendant entered a plea of guilty.

Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith before whom the hearing was held, sentenced Chaney to six months in the county jail, but suspended 90 days of the sentence on the provision that Chaney leave the county immediately following his release from jail.

Officers said that Chaney is an ex-convict, having served a sentence in San Quentin for grand theft from 1933 to 1935.

Possibility that forgery charges may be filed by Goode loomed when it was brought out that checks were taken from the garage where Chaney worked and had not been returned. The defendant said he was unable say definitely whether or not he cashed them. He admitted however, taking the money, but said he had permission to use the car.

Here is one for the book.

It seems that on May 10, 1932, Thomas Wogan, a naval lieutenant at Annapolis, Maryland, was tagged for going 50 miles an hour on the highway near Truckee.

Now more than five years later he writes asking that the amount of the fine be given him so that he can make proper settlement.

Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith is making an investigation to determine the penalty in the unusual citation.

WINDOWS WILL BE BOARDED AT LOCAL SPORTS PAVILION

Frank Powell has been authorized by the Truckee Chamber of Commerece to erect board shutters for the windows at the winter sports pavillion in an effort to eliminate the frequent breakings caused by vandals. A number of windows have been shattered by small calibre bullets and stones and it is hoped the new plan will end the old trouble.

BOARDS TO UNITE IN PROGRAM PLAN FOR EXPOSITION

Supervisors of Nevada, Sierra, Placer, Yolo, Solano and Sacramento conferred with Supervisor Henry Senf of Sacramento, chairman of the Sacramento Valleys Expositions Commission for a combined exhibit of the northern California counties at the 1939 San Francisco Exposition.

Representatives of the boards will plan for the event at a meeting to be held in the Sacramento County Court house August 7th.

The mountain counties and the Sacramento Valley had a combined exhibit at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915 and the idea proved so successful the commission is to be revived.

THE BOYS RIDE WEST

Westward ho! California's tourist season has only two months more to go.

So advises "The Hobo News," ingorming itc clientele: "Best time of the year to travel to the West from New York is from June 1 to October 1." Thus with September and only part of August remaining, the rush....the bum's rush..... has zipped past its half-way mark.

But ommitted by "The Hobo News," in its helpful hints is how first class hoboes, 2nd class tramps, and third class bindlestiffs are going to reach California alive.

The odds against it are so steeply stacked that even a Steve Brodie wouldn't tak the chance. Last year 2700 such wanderers lost their lives on the freights.....228 a month killed during their restless flight from someplace to anywhere.

Most of these victims were hardy veterans of the road. but not all. Many were between 14 and 21 yars of age. Over a hundred were less than 14 yars old.

What of it? Dos it matter if bindlestiffs are wiped out like flies, their bodies flung into any convenient potter's field? Who cares, anyway?

Well, it so happens that the railroads do care. The Safety Section of the Association of American Railroads has now set in motion an intensive safety campaign to reduce the unnecessary loss of life resulting frm tohis cause, even though.....in dollars and cents....it may be small loss to them how many knights of the road are snuffed out yearly.

Despite the fact that we hear little about it, illegal train-riding constitutes one of the nation's main safety problems. It is worth knowing that the American railroads have aggressively begun to work for its solution.

THE INNOCENTS OF WAR

Bilbo's homeless children, huddled in far-away England, prove once again that it is the innocents of war who surrender without concessions, without chane to retreat.

Welcome food.....British food.....has supplanted the privilege of starving for a cause which these children are still too young to analyze. Comfortable homes....British built.....shelter them, where two month ago a reddened sky reflecting the glare of a burning city, was the only canopy above these children's heads.

But thy are not happy, for they are in England. They have brought with them their sympathy for their homeland and left their hearts behind in the Basque hills.

Americans may well observe these innocent bystanders but a few thousands of the world' millions. For war has no rspect for age or intelligence.....it renders all as innocent as the children of Bilboa.

The wise, like the ignorant,are fettered. Powerful leaders, who once toyed with forces, find themselves toys, awaiting their final destruction.

That is the truth about war. It is a brutal eduated giant, without a soul.....this modern warfare. It will allow humanity no quarter. One let lose, war will disarm mankind of its rights, its hopes and all the things worth living for, and then at last its very life.

A STORY TO REMEMBER

In Oakland the other day, a lonely old woman sent her two grandchildren out to play, placed the muzzle of a gun against her temple and fired, killing herself.

Her heartbroken son and daughter explained to police that the old woman had been left very much to herself. All but the wto children were to engrossed in their own affairs to have any time for her. She beame despondent over what she regarded as neglect and decided the world held nothing more for her.

Now her son and daughter will reproach themselves the best of their lives for the senseless sacrifice of their mother's life. It is not as if they were callous and unfeeling.....then no condemnation could be too severe fo rthem. Their only sins were selfishness and thoughtlessness.

They did not realize that the unfortunate victim was eating her heart out in loneliness.....that loneliness lead too self-pity and self-pity to morbidity.

There is much for all of us to learn from this tragic case. A few minutes of effort to show our appreciation of those we love by means of a little gift, a letter, or a visit may prevent real unhappiness. And you'll find that a good deed well done brings a pleasant glow of satisfaction which nothing else really can.

No wonder there is a lot of knowledge in the colleges.... the freshmen always bring a little in and the seniors never take any away.....Abbott Lawrence Lowell, President Emeritus of Harvard University.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 5.— (UP)—The liquor and beer industries in California must regulate their own business hereafter, instead of running to the state for help in preventing "cut throat" competition, the board of equalization ruled after many complaints had been made about the state regulating one business and letting other types of merchants handle their own problems.

The board adopted a resolution holding that it would not interefer in the internal regulations of any phase of the liquor industry unless a petition for such action is presented by a majority of the representatives of that industry.

One member remarked:

"And there's not a chance of a majority getting together on any one plan, so we're safe in making that exception."

The official board action had the effect of counteracting previous orders of George M. Stout, state liquor administrator, who announced he was creating a malt beverage division to handle all phases of the beer industry

This division, Stout said, would supervise the elimination of the outstanding "evil" of the industry, "illegal and cut throat competition involving the rendering of financial assistance by manufacturers and the wholesalers to licensees by means of supplying free goods, outside signs, equipment, secret rebates and excessive credits."

The state brewers institute had turned to the state for help in eliminating those competitive habits, but the board, in the face of growing evidence of opposition to such state activity, ruled against it.

An indication of the extent to which representatives of the industry go in seeking state assistance in the matter of eliminating competitive habits:

An officer of a hard liquor association appealed to the board to adopt a regulation forbidding bartenders to give drinks "on the house." Board membes threw up their hands in horror Director of finance Arlin E. Stockburger was irked a bit when he learned that a report was released statewide that he was a former preacher.

"I used to teach Sunday school, and I'm proud of it," he said. "I belong to a church, and I'm proud of that. But my training as an engineer and in business finance hardly fitted me for taeching the gospel.

"Ordinarily, I would consider such a report complimentary, but in this case I believe it was done deliberately in an effort to start the impression that the finances of California were being directed by a man who was trained not in finance but for the ministry.

"I don't care how far people go in discussing or writing political possibilities involving me. That's part of the game. But when they deliberately lie about me with an ulterior motive in view, then I'm going to object strenuously."

Stockburger said he hardly saw how he could have had time to be a minister. As soon as he finished college, he went into business with his father in a chain of mercantile stores. His large scale buying included the carload purchase of everything from potatoes to dainty lingerie. Later, he moved into city managership activities for some 16 years before he accepted the appointment as state finance director.

Assemblyman Charles A. Hunt, the firey little railroad fireman who popped District Attorney Otis D. Babcock in the jaw the night the legislature adjourned, had his eyes on the job now held by State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson.

Hunt, according to reports from

Patrolman Walker Has Busy Week As Many Nabbed

Tahoe City, August 5—Patrolman Gene Walker spent a busy week adding additional favor to his already enviable reputation for effeciency. On July 31 at 6:40 P. M. he was called to Rubicon Park CCC Camp where the officer in charge reported a number of articles including tools, gas head lights, etc....were being stolen from the premises, efforts to apprehend the culprits proving futile. Armed with a partial description of the car and meager details regarding the men suspected, Officer Walker left. Ten minutes later he passed a green Chevrolet in which Frank Carroll, 19, and J. L. Cole 17, resients of the camp (AWOL) were riding. Following a sudden hunch he pursued them, discovering some of the stolen property in their possession.

The car in which they were riding was found to have been purchased from Campbell Bros, in Truckee who were gratified to learn of it's whereabouts, repossessing it as payments had not been made. The two boys were turned over to their commanding officer for disciplinary measures.

Officer Walker on Sunday Ang. 1st, received the report that the car of M. M| Morris of San Francisco had been stolen from Cal-Neva. He found it the same day, several hours later, undamaged on an abandoned road near Tahoe Vista.

On Sunday night Joe King reported that his car had been stolen at 9:00 P. M. from King's Beach. Hunt was started immediately for a suspect, Fred Pulley, 24, of Venice, California, who has been driving truck for King this summer. About two hours later King himself apprehended his man in possession of the car. In his pockets were numerous keys and a number of driver's liscenses made out in various names. Described by Walter as a bad actor Pulley proceeded to get 'tough' with Mr. King, a gesture he found to be extremely foolhardy a short time later. Arrested by Walker on a felony charge he was lodged in Tahoe City's concrete bastile where he at his writing awaits transfer to Auburn for hearing. With his arrest it sibelieved the mild wave of petty thefts and car thieving may be discontinued.

(By SWANEE)

Mrs. Vendla Purcell, daughter of Charles Swanson of Sunnyside, accompanier by her little three year old daughter Patricia, spent a weeks vacation at Tahoe asguests of Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Sunkel of Tahoe Cedars. Having been raised at Tahoe she enjoyed meeting old friends once more. On Sunday a dinner was given in her honor at Prusso's Forest Inn on Ward Creek the party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Sunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson, Mrs. Leta Hull and Miss Katherine Murphy. Mrs. Purcell and daughter departed for their San Francisco home on Monday.

Tom Stanley, former constable of Gold Run for a number of years, a resident of Grass Valley for some months past, has received an appointment to that city's police force from the city council. Stanley, well known at Tahoe where he has many friends, is well known for his gun-fighting proclivities and until last year was a member of the Placer county peace officer's association, being president of that body for a term.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. an Norman of Los Angeles will sojourn for several weeks at the J. has. Harris home in the Timberland Tract.

Many old timers of Tahoe learned with interest last week through a Sacramento newspaper account, of the change of position of J. T. 'Jack' Matthews, for many years manager of Tahoe Tavern. For several years past he was in charge at the Hotel Whitcomb in San Francisco but on July 25th. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews were recent visitors at Pomin's Resort for several days.

The trial of Miss Patricia Ledyard of Berkeley was held on Monday morning before Judge Bliss at Tahoe, n a charge or reckless driving with injury arising from an accident between her car and that of Johnnie Williams of Tahoe. Officer Walker preferred the charge after investigation proved conclusively that the young lady was driving at excessive speed on the wrong side of the road. Miss Betty Koehler, 19, of Burlingame, riding with her, has recovered from minor injuries received in the crash. Judge Bliss, following areprimand, suspended indefinitely her driving license. George Schlumpf, riding with Williams was not at fault, driving at moderate speed on his own side of the road.

INDUSTRIES OF STATE TO BE HONORED ON VARIOUS DAYS AT STATE'S FAIR

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 5.— A California Industries Pageant featuring 10 major activities of the state will be a principal attraction at the state fair, September 3 to 12.

The fair board has approved a plan of Secretary Manager Robert Muckler to name each of the 10 days of the fair for an industry. The secretary declared:

"The California Industries Pageant affords an excellent means for infarming Californians of the state's major industrial and educational pursuits. We expect the Pageant to be an attractive part of the fair."

Agriculture, bringing to California an annual approximate income of $600,000,000, is one of the prominent industries to be eulogized in the special 10-day arrangement.

One of the special days will be devoted to Churches, a new idea at the California State Fair but used by some eastern state fairs.

The eight other days in the California Industries Pagent will be dedicated to Education, Livestock, Newspapers-Printing, Mining, Radio, Fruit, Motion picture and Manufacturing.

President A. B. Miller of the fair board explained that although the 10 days of pageantry will be devoted to industries, the plan does not alter the system of special days for organizations and cities.

Governor's Day, historically one of the big days of the fair, will be given more prominence than usual. This day, traditionally held on Thursday, has been changed to Friday this year in order to turn Thursday over to the colorful Admission Day celebration, September 9. Labor Day will be another outstanding event.

Los Angeles, will run for state treasurer next year on the Democratic ticket.

His clash with abcock occured after he had been subpenaed to appear before the Sacramento county grand jury during Babcock's investigation of reported legislative graft. Babcock wanted to know why Hunt had backed a bill to prohibit the sale of Coca Cola.

Reports from San Francisco were that State Senator Walter McGovern expected to run for reelection, despite the fact he would like to be mayor of the bay metropolis. Should he drop out of the state legislative contest, either Assemblman William B. Hornblower or Thomas A. Maloney may try for his place in the upper house.

Latest to announce his candidacy for governor was William B. Griffin, Pismo Beach democrat and real estate broker, whose platform will call for a pension of $100 a month to each California citizen over 50.

True Courage

WHAT is courage? Many people like to be considered brave, but there is a difference between mere physical bravery and true courage. Alexander Pope, the renowned English poet, gives his concept of a brave man in these words: "A brave man thinks no one his superior who does him an injury; for he has it then in his power to make himself superior to the other by forgiving it." Oftentimes it takes courage to forgive an injury, but if the sense of forgiveness should be overshadowed by a belief in one's own superiority, the act of forgiving could in no wise be termed courageous. It certainly would fall far short of the standard set by Christ Jesus, who said (Matthew 5:44), "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you." This admonition calls for true courage, for it requires humility and selflessness to meet its requirements.

Christ Jesus was the most courageous man that ever walked the earth because he was the meekest and most selfless. Never did he hesitate to say or do what he knew to be right, and always his speech and actions were prompted by unselfed love. He rebuked sinners unhesitatingly, and he sacrificed his human sense of life to show them the way of salvation. His ministry of healing and teaching stands for all time as the acme of selfless devotion to sin-burdened and suffering humanity.- He was absolutely convinced of the truth of all that he said and taught, and neither threats nor efforts to destroy him could swerve him from his convictions or make him fearful. He urged his followers to do as he did, and thereby earned the hatred of selfish materialists. He knew, however, that immeasurable blessings would flow to all who should courageously and understandingly obey his admonitions.

In the world today there are many millions of professed Christians, but alas, too much diversity of opinion concerning the teachings and works of the master Christian. Why should this be so when Jesus so clearly mapped out the course to be taken by his true followers? They were to do the works that he did—works of healing as well as regenerating; they were to practice self-denial; they were to promote love and peace throughout the world; and they were in all circumstances to put their trust, not in material things, but in God. And, said he (Matthew 7:20), "By their fruits"—their accomplishments along such lines—"ye shall know them." . . .

Courage of the right sort is sorely needed in the world today, the moral courage to subdue self, to be humble, pure-minded, free from resentment, ready to return good for evil. Such courage is a rebuke to animal courage, of which there is a superfluity. Concerning this, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, states in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (pp. 28, 29): "There is too much animal courage in society and not sufficient moral courage. Christians must take up arms against error at home and abroad. They must grapple with sin in themselves and in others, and continue this warfare until they have finished their course. If they keep the faith, they will have the crown of rejoicing."

This much-to-be-desired crown should not be considered as something to be hoped for in some future existence, but as a joyous sense of harmony and spiritual dominion to be striven for and attained here and now. It requires real courage to win and wear this crown, courage to stand firmly on the side of Principle against selfish desires, and oftentimes against the scoffs of sinners. . . .

There is nothing more ennobling than courageously forsaking material beliefs for spiritual understanding, for this transition requires humility and unselfed love. Also, it affords deep satisfaction to know that whatever is accomplished through courage born of unselfed love, blesses not only the individuals directly concerned, but, in some degree, all mankind as well.—The Christian Science Monitor.
